What we are developing now in d-ICT

The d-ICT partnership is currently developing the "Lessons learned" (PR1). This first project result will be a bottom-up process that will refine the needs of the VET educators and collect significant experiential educational materials, by collecting the digital strategies taken per country and the personal copping strategies to abide by the needs of COVID era. This fine-tuned needs analysis will act as an e-Portfolio with experiential information useful to VET educators.

More information on the "Lessons learned" (PR1), in the next edition of the d-ICT newsletter.
