The progress of d-ICT so far

The portfolio of “Lessons learned” (PR1) has been almost completed. Every partner wrote down the needs of the VET educators and their experiential educational materials. The “d-ICT e-Toolkit” has already started by introducing distance learning practices and digital tools in order to facilitate the e-learning experience and create a warm e-Classroom climate. At the same time, the “Gamified asynchronous e Learning experience” (PR3) has been developing the templates design of the Pedagogical architecture.

More information on the “d-ICT e-Toolkit” and the “Gamified asynchronous e Learning experience” in the next edition of the d-ICT newsletter.
